Committee.

The report was accepted and the persons proposed were unanimously elected members of the House.

Mr. E. F. DeLancey from the Committee on Endowments, read the following ### REPORT.

First Annual Report of the Committee on Endowments.

The Committee on Endowments respectfully Report: That during the past year Five Endowments have been consummated, the benefits of all of which the College is now reaping.

1. That of the Hobart Professorship of the Greek and Latin Language and Literature, upon a foundation of $15,000, raised by private subscription.

2. That of the Trinity Professorship of Christian Ethics, Logic, Intellectual Philosophy and History, established by the Protestant Episcopal Society for the promotion of Religion and Learning, with a fund of $15,000.

3. The General Endowment of $3,000 per annum in perpetuity, by the venerable Corporation of Trinity Church, New York.

4. A Fellowship, established by John H. Swift, Esq., of New York, with a foundation of $5,000.

5. The Horace White prize fund—a gift of $500 by Mr. Horace White, of Syracuse, the interest of which is to be for ever applied to the procurement, annually, of a Gold Medal of the value of twenty-five dollars, and of a Silver Medal, of the value of ten dollars, as prizes for the two best original Essays by students of the College, on subjects to be assigned by the Bishop, the President of the College and the Senior Professor.

By the conditions of the General Endowment of $3,000 per annum for ever, by Trinity Church, the name of the Institution has been changed from "Geneva College," to "Hobart Free College at Geneva;" and all charges for Tuition, Room Rent, &c., have been abolished, thus throwing open to all who may desire them, the benefits of a College Education—the liberalities of the latter of which acts, is without a parallel in the annals of Collegiate Institutions.

The Committee, in concluding their report, beg leave to express their grateful thanks to the donors of the above named endowments, and hope that in another year they may be enabled to congratulate the House of Convocation upon the results of the examples which have been so generously set.

July 15th, 1852.

EDWARD F. DELANCEY.

NOTE.—In the absence of the other members of the Committee, the undersigned was permitted by the House to present the above, as the Committee's Annual Report.

July 15th, 1852.

EDWARD F. DELANCEY.

On motion by Rev. Dr. Metcalf, Resolved, That the thanks of this House be presented to John N. Whiting, Esq., for his able Address, and that a copy of said Address be requested for publication.

The House then went into an election of Orator for the next year, and on balloting, Rev. Charles H. Platt was chosen Orator, and Rev. Walter Ayrault substitute.

On motion by Mr. J. N. Whiting, Resolved, That that portion of the Bye-Laws referring to the publication of the Journal, be suspended; and that the publication be left to the discretion of the Treasurer and Secretary.
